I. Points (Listed as H in original)

1. A QSO point is the result of a contact between 2 stations on a specific band, recorded in their logs, and counted only once.
2. QSO points have different values, depending on the band where the QSO takes place.
3. DUPE is a QSO with a station that has already been recorded in the log on the same band. There is no penalty, but the QSO value is 0 (zero).
4. UNIQ is a QSO recorded only in your log and not recorded in the other participant's log.
5. BUSTED is a QSO condition where there is no log for the opposing callsign. QSO point = 0, with no penalty.
6. NIL is a QSO recorded only in your log and not recorded in your QSO partner's log. QSO point = 0, with no penalty.

QSO Points Table:

BAND	80M	40M	20M	15M	10M
POINT	5	1	2	3	4

J. Multipliers

1. A QSO with a new prefix station for the first time is worth 1 multiplier.
2. A QSO with a DX station for the first time is worth 1 multiplier.
3. A QSO with an entity for the first time is worth 1 multiplier.

K. Scoring

The Total Score is Total_QSO_points multiplied by Total_multipliers. For checklog participants, the score is not calculated. Bonus point stations are included in the checklog station category.

L. Ranking

Rankings are sorted based on the highest score in each category. If there is a tie in the score within the same category, the ranking will be based on the log upload time.

M. Logsheets

1. The committee only accepts logsheets in Cabrillo File format.
2. It is recommended to use the N1MM Logger Application.
3. The deadline for submitting logsheets is 7 days after the event. Any submissions past the deadline will be considered a checklog.
4. Multiple log submissions for the same callsign are allowed, but calculations will only be performed on the last log received before the submission deadline.
5. Logsheets can be uploaded/submitted at the following address: <https://bdx.oraridaerahbali.org>

N. User Defined Contest (UDC)

The User Defined Contest (UDC) file for N1MM Logger users can be downloaded at the website: <https://bdx.oraridaerahbali.org>

O. Awards / Certificates

All participants who submit a logsheet will receive an electronic Award/Certificate online. Participants in the Checklog category will not receive an Award/Certificate.

Q. Other Provisions

1. Participants must possess a valid Amateur Radio License during the contest execution.
2. Contest participants are strictly prohibited from Self Spotting.
3. Contest participants must use frequencies by the established amateur radio band plan and avoid frequencies currently in use for NET, SES, and Emergency Frequency activities.
4. Participants must use Power output according to their license tier levels regulated by the government.
5. Participants in the Indonesian Multi-User Category must use a contest callsign for club stations (Prefixes starting with 7A – 7I); the YH prefix cannot be used to participate in this contest per applicable regulations.
6. Only one transmitted signal is allowed on the same band by the same station at any given time.
7. The committee reserves the right to disqualify Contest participants who violate the rules and provisions.
8. The committee's decisions are absolute, final, and binding.
